Information/Collection Notice: Please read the following in association with the College Privacy Policy available on the College Website or from the College upon request.

- 1. The College collects personal information, including sensitive information about pupils and parents or guardians before and during the course of a pupil's enrolment at the College. The primary purpose of collecting this information is to enable the College to provide schooling for your child.
- 2. Some of the information we collect is to satisfy the College's legal obligations, particularly to enable the College to discharge its duty of care.
- 3. Certain laws governing or relating to the operation of schools require that certain information be collected. These include Public Health, for example, notification of contagious diseases and Child Protection Laws.
- 4. Health information about pupils is sensitive information within the terms of the National Privacy Principles under the Privacy Act. We ask you to provide medical reports about pupils from time to time.
- 5. The College from time to time discloses personal and sensitive information to others for administrative and educational purposes. This includes other schools, medical practitioners and people providing services to the College, including visiting teachers, (sport) coaches and volunteers, and reporting to Government Departments as required by law.
- 6. If we do not obtain the information referred to above we may not be able to enrol or continue the enrolment of your child.
- 7. Personal information collected from pupils is regularly disclosed to their parents or guardians. On occasions information and images such as academic and sporting achievements, pupil activities and other news is published in the College newsletter and website, external magazines and newspapers, and for other proper school purposes.
- 8. Parents may seek access to personal information collected about them and their child by contacting the College. Pupils may also seek access to personal information about them. However, there will be occasions when access is denied. Such occasions would include where access would have an unreasonable impact on the privacy of others, where access may result in a breach of the College's duty of care to the pupil or where pupils have a right to provide information in confidence.
- 9. The College from time to time may wish to coordinate parent support or organise fundraising activities. Information received from you may be used to contact you. It may also be disclosed to persons authorised to assist in the College's fundraising activities solely for that purpose. We will not disclose your personal information to third parties for their own marketing purposes without your consent.
- 10. We include your contact details such as your name, address and home telephone number in a class list and College directory. This is made available to other parents in the year group. If you do not agree to this you must advise the Principal.
- 11. The normal functioning of Peregian Beach College I.T. system involves logging and recording Internet activity and e-mail messages. The Internet activity and e-mails are periodically analysed for reasons of system maintenance and security. These details will only be used for internal purposes at PBC.
- 12. If you provide the College with the personal information of others, such as doctors or emergency contacts, we encourage you to inform them that you are disclosing that information to the College and the reason why so that they can access that information if they wish and that the College does not usually disclose the information to third parties.

Parent Support

At Peregian Beach College we require the support and enthusiasm for fund-raising events and activities. You as a member of the College play an important part. All parents are warmly encouraged to participate meetings in this regard.

Parents also play a significant part in Support Groups to assist in the major co-curricular areas of the College. If you have an expertise and/or enthusiasm for any specific area, please enquire at the College administration office.
